Advent Candles: This year, our advent candles will come from all of us as we share stories about the meaning of candles we treasure. Sometimes we buy candles to remember a special occasion so you can purchase and bring a candle that represents hope or peace or love for you. So...do you have a candle that has meaning for you, a luminous sign of “God with us”, that you wish to bring on a Sunday during Advent? Contact office or Brian if you plan on bringing a candle so we can prepare
